

This Week at Deroche!

Date: Feb 19-23, 2018

Dear Parents:

You can see below two students doing the dishes in their class. Yes, it's true, we did not stage this event! Our teachers have finished a pilot project to determine whether or not breakfast should be offered to all students in their classrooms each morning, and have decided that it really works! Students are preparing their own breakfasts, learning about nutrition, and taking responsibility for all the clean-up. We have very much appreciated the donations of food and are particularly grateful to the parent volunteers who have previously served breakfast from the kitchen this year, and many years in the past. Please do not hesitate to let us know what you think.
