

Week 6:

These are Gr. 2 words. Many have more than 1 vowel or consonant in a row. And don't always follow the usual sound out patterns. Try them. If it doesn't sound like a word, you may have discovered a new sound effect! Play with, be brave.

For Gr. 1 use as printing practice.

How many are easy to read? _____

How many are hard? _____

Almost impossible? _____

Gr. 2

-print over all the Dolch words List 4

-cut them out, keep the scraps for Thursday

-play I Spy With My Little Eye (ie. has 2 vowels in a row; around, goes, etc.; has 2 consonant's in a row; around, don't, etc.)

-keep all words in a bag/envelope/folded paper for weeks to come

Tuesday

-sort the words by easy to hard

-why were some harder?

Wednesday

-sort the words alphabetically (a words then b words...)

Thursday

-use the words to make sentences (you can print extra words on scraps of paper or place toys beside words for extra nouns; you may use scraps of paper to give endings ie./ s, ed, ing)

Friday

-make a story from as many words as possible

-take a picture of your story
