PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE: Dear Parents and Guardians: What a week in Bear Nation! On Friday, Division 1 did a tremendous job presenting their written ideas and art on the sacred teaching of honesty. The public speaking was outstanding and the masks and life size Sasquatch were terrifying! We had all better be honest!

PAC did a wonderful job with the hot lunch following the assembly and then, no sooner was the clean-up done, the ladies were back the next morning sorting bottles all day in our very successful bottle drive. Great work Kasey, Chrystal, Janet, Cheryl, Krista and Mrs. MacLean! Together we made $1,367.00! – Well done!

Finally, on Wednesday our two volleyball teams, coached by Mrs. MacMillan and Mr. Fitch, hosted, that's right, WE HOSTED, West Heights and Dewdney in an exhibition volleyball play day! Our students were so excited to have other schools competing in our gym, and our school won 3 of 5 games! Thank you to everyone involved for your dedication to making Deroche Elementary such an exciting place to learn and grow!

Mike Abercrombie - Principal

ANNOUNCEMENTS: Next week is Spirit Week! Monday: Fashion Disaster Day (dress in everything!); Tuesday: Storybook Day (dress like your favorite character; Wed: Crazy Hair Day; Thursday: Valentine's Day – Wear pink & red. We are having a Bake Sale on February 14th. Students can spend up to $1.00 at lunch and the bake sale will be open after school too. Students can also hand out Valentine cards to each of their classmates on Thursday. Teachers will send home a list of student names with your child so you don't forget anyone.

Good luck to our Volleyball players who will play their first game on February 14th at Mission Central. Go Bears Go!!
