BULLETIN #18

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE: Dear Deroche Bear Families and Supporters,
As you can see above our students have returned from Spring Break eager to play with each other and design their own homes and gardens. Exciting how a modest purchase of used play items from a thrift store could inspire so much cooperation and creativity! Way to go Mrs. Maclean and Garden Club. Speaking of art and design, you have no doubt noticed the beautiful salmon life cycle paintings adorning our playgrounds. This great work was completed by our students and directed by Miss Alexis our Indigenous Liaison Worker. Fantastic job and there are more paintings to come!

Mike Abercrombie - Principal

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Salmon Release: We're excited to have Inch Creek Hatchery here this Friday. Students will assist them in releasing another 40,000 fry into the stream!

Nut Aware: Two of our students in Div 3 (Ms. Edenborough's class) have nut and hazelnut allergies. To reduce the chance of exposure, please refrain from sending nut food products to school with your child if in Division 3.

Ready Set Learn Event: Calling all pre-school and upcoming K's ... please join us at the school on April 22nd from 9-10:00 for a Story Walk and Treasure Hunt.
